DATA TYPES

Navigation Data

The computer systems and software procedures used to operate this website acquire, during their normal operations, some personal data whose transmission is implicit in the use of Internet communication protocols.

This is information that is not collected to be associated with identified interested parties, but which by their very nature could, through processing and association with data held by third parties, allow users to be identified.

This category of data includes, for example, the IP addresses or domain names of computers or other tools used by users who connect to the site, the addresses in URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) notation of the requested resources, the time of request, the method used to submit the request to the server, the size of the file obtained in response, the numerical code indicating the status of the response given by the server (successful, error, etc.) and other parameters relating to the operating system and computer environment of the user.

These data are used only to obtain anonymous statistical information on the use of the site and to check its correct functioning and are deleted immediately after processing.

Cookies

Information about cookies are available at <https://www.iubenda.com/privacy-policy/227408>.

Data provided voluntarily by the user

The optional, explicit and voluntary sending of e-mails to the addresses indicated on this site entails the subsequent acquisition of the sender's address, necessary to respond to requests, as well as any other personal data included in the message. Specific summary information is also reported or displayed in the sections of the site set up for particular services on request and subject, if necessary, to the consent of the interested party.

Purpose of processing and provision of data

Apart from what has been specified for navigation data and technical cookies, the user is free to provide their personal data through the use of specific forms or modules on the site to request the sending of the newsletter, information material or other communications and, more generally, for the purposes indicated in the relevant and specific information. Failure to provide them might make it impossible to obtain what is requested.

Methods of processing and recipients of personal data

Our Company, as data controller, and each of any external managers as identified above, will manage and store the personal data collected through the use of the site and its various functions that can be activated at the request of the user with automated and / or paper tools, for the time strictly necessary to achieve the purposes for which they were collected or voluntarily communicated by the user.

Specific security measures, as required by art. 32 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, are observed to prevent the loss of data, illicit or incorrect use and unauthorized access.

The data is managed only by personnel authorized by the data controller.

In no case will the data be disseminated.

The aforementioned data provides for the user's personal profiling activity in relation to the purpose of collecting curriculum data.

Rights of the interested party

The subjects to whom the personal data processed refer are guaranteed all the rights referred to in articles 15, 16, 17, 18 of Regulation 679 (access with confirmation of the existence or otherwise of the processing of their data; rectification, cancellation and limitation of the processing when the cases occur).

The interested user has the right to oppose in any case, for legitimate reasons, to their treatment.
